USA VS. UCONN

Today's game marks the third time a USA National Team will face a Connecticut team on one of its four college tours dating to 1995.

In the more recent of the two contests, Lisa Leslie scored a game-high 19 points to lead the USA to a 90-74 victory on Nov. 2, 2007. Heading the charge for the Huskies was Renee Montgomery, who notched 17 points.

The first time the two teams met was seven years earlier and the 83-47 USA victory also was powered by Leslie, who poured in 20 points. Jamelle Elliott, who served as a scout/court coach for the 2016 U.S. Olympic Team, was UConn's top scorer that night with 13 points. Also playing in that game was 2020 U.S. Olympic Team assistant coach Jennifer Rizzotti, who put up an impressive 12 points, dished out three points and had a team-best four steals.

UNIVERSITY OF CONNECTICUT - USA BASKETBALL CONNECTIONS

In 1996, former University of Connecticut star Rebecca Lobo became the first UConn player to win a medal at the Olympic Games when she helped the 1996 U.S. Women's Olympic Team strike gold with an 8-0 record in Atlanta. Since that time eight Huskies have won a combined 17 gold medals at the Olympic Games, including Sue Bird (2016, 2012, 2008, 2004), Swin Cash (2012, 2004), Tina Charles (2016, 2012), Asjha Jones (2012), Maya Moore (2016, 2012), Breanna Stewart (2016), Diana Taurasi (2016, 2012, 2008, 2004) and Kara Wolters (2000). Nine UConn athletes also have represented USA Basketball at FIBA World Cups, including Bird, who owns more World Cup hardware than anyone in history with her four gold medals (2002, 2006, 2010, 2018) and one bronze medal (2010). Also claiming gold medals at the World Cup are Cash (2010), Charles (2010, 2014, 2018), Jones (2010), Moore (2010, 2014), Taurasi (2010, 2014, 2018), Stewart (2014, 2018), Morgan Tuck (2018) and Wolters (1998). Taurasi also was a member of the 2006 USA squad that returned with a bronze medal, and Wolters was on the '94 squad that took the bronze.

2009-16 USA National Team head coach Geno Auriemma first coached for USA Basketball in 1993. Among his numerous coaching stints with the red, white and blue was as an assistant coach for the 2000 U.S. Olympic Team that won gold in Sydney. More recently, Auriemma piloted the 2010 and 2014 USA World Cup and 2012 and 2016 U.S. Olympic teams to gold medals.

In addition to its nine Olympic gold medalists and eight World Cup gold medalists, UConn's all-time roster is filled with numerous USA Basketball Junior National Team gold medalists, including recent graduates Moriah Jefferson, Stewart and Tuck, who won a combined 11 gold medals and two silver medals while competing on various USA Basketball junior teams. After playing on numerous USA junior squads, 2019 UConn grads Napheesa Collier and Katie Lou Samuelson earned spots on the 2017-20 USA National Team while still in college. This past fall the duo helped the USA collect the gold medal at the FIBA AmeriCup in San Juan, Puerto Rico; and Collier returned in November to help the squad to a 6-1 record against college teams and Argentina, Brazil and Colombia's national teams at the FIBA Pre-Olympic Qualifying Tournament in Bahía Blanca, Argentina.

Not only is UConn prevalent among USA athlete rosters, three former Huskies have joined the USA Basketball coaching ranks. Carla Berube served as a head coach for the 2018 USA U17 World Cup Team that captured the gold medal after also claiming gold at the 2017 U16 FIBA Americas Championship. Jamelle Elliott twice has served as a court coach, both at the 2016 Olympics and the 2017 USA U23 National Team training camp, while Jennifer Rizzotti has been a head and assistant coach for numerous USA teams, most recently as an assistant coach for the 2018 USA World Cup Team that captured gold in Spain.

UConn also lists four USA Basketball Female Athlete of the Year honorees in Charles (2009), Moore (2014), Stewart (2011, 2013, 2018) and Taurasi (2006, 2010, 2012, 2016). Next year's freshman class will include yet another USA Basketball Female Athlete of the Year as high schooler and UConn commit Paige Bueckers earned the 2019 honor.

USA WOMEN'S NATIONAL TEAM NOTES

USA VS. UCONN EXPANDED

Game 1: 11/2/1995

The USA-UConn game was a homecoming for Rebecca Lobo, who helped lead UConn to its first NCAA title seven months earlier. She received hero's welcome from the Storrs crowd and responded with USA fourth-best eight points and a pair of boards.

Including Elliott and Rizzotti, UConn's five starters all aided USA Basketball in one form or another in international competition. 2018 USA Basketball Developmental Coach of the Year Carla Berube finished with four points and six rebounds; Nykesha Sales, who played on several USA junior teams had nine points and eight boards; and 2000 Olympic gold medalist Kara Wolters scored six points and grabbed three caroms.

Game 2: 11/2/2007

The game in 2007 featured three former Huskies competing for the U.S. side: Sue Bird, Swin Cash and Diana Taurasi. Taurasi finished the game with 14 points, five rebounds and four assists; Bird had eight points and three assists and Cash chipped in four points and two dimes.

UConn had a pair of eventual Olympic and FIBA World Cup gold medalists on its roster that night in Tina Charles, who scored eight points, and Maya Moore, who missed a double-double after notching 14 points and nine boards.

USA - UCONN CONNECTIONS

Crystal Dangerfield and A'ja Wilson teamed up on the 2015 USA U19 World Cup Team (coached by USA National Team head coach Dawn Staley) that captured gold in Russia. In 2013 Dangerfield and Katie Lou Samuelson were teammates on the USA U16 National Team that captured gold at the FIBA Americas U16 Championship.

Olivia Nelson-Ododa played on the 2019 USA AmeriCup Team that captured gold and featured USA assistant coaches Dan Hughes, Cheryl Reeve and Jennifer Rizzotti, and included Tina Charles, Sylvia Fowles and Samuelson on the roster.

Nelson-Ododa and Christyn Williams participated in the USA National Team training camp ahead of the 2019 AmeriCup, which featured Sue Bird, Charles, Skylar Diggins-Smith, Fowles, Samuelson, Diana Taurasi and the USA coaching staff.

As head coach for the 2007-16 USA National Team Connecticut, head coach Geno Auriemma has coached most members of the USA team at at least one USA National Team training camp.

RED VS. BLUE JERSEYS

The USA Women's National Team is the only USA Basketball team that wears a red uniform. All the other teams wear blue, to include junior teams and the men's national team. The red jersey was launched for the 1995-96 USA WNT and holds special meaning to those who wear it. It's a rite of passage for USA junior athletes who have progressed through the system and attend their first WNT camp to receive their first red jersey.

HONORING THE PAST

At each of the USA's four college stops during the teams games in November, past Olympic gold medal-winning team members were on hand to witness the continued growth of the USA National Team program.

Stanford honored 1996 U.S. Olympic gold medalists and Cardinal alumni Jennifer Azzi and Katy Steding, along with Stanford head coach Tara VanDerveer, who coached the team to gold.

At Oregon State, 1984 U.S. Olympic gold medalist Carol Menken-Schaudt was honored during the game and took part in the USA's post-shoot around meet and greet with the Beaver squad.

One of the featured fans at the Texas A&M game was Van Chancellor, who served as head coach of the 2004 U.S. Olympic Team that saw the Olympic debut of current USA National Team members Sue Bird and Diana Taurasi.

At Oregon, Carol Menken, who at 26 was the oldest member of the 1984 team that captured the USA's first Olympic gold medal, was on hand to watch Oregon's upset of the U.S. squad.

At least one retired Olympian will be on hand when the USA takes on Connecticut - 1996 gold medalist Rebecca Lobo is working as an analyst for ESPN.

HOPEY'S HEART

Tina Charles, like many athletes, has used her position as a professional basketball player to give back to various causes that are close to her heart.

In 2011, Charles read about the untimely passing of Fennville High School (Mich.) basketball player Wes Leonard, who died of sudden cardiac arrest (SCA) at the end of one of his basketball games. Leonard could have been saved with an automated external defibrillator (AED).

Moved by his tragedy, Charles donated $14,775 to the New York Department of Education and the Wes Leonard Heart Team to purchase AEDs.

In 2012 Charles partnered with OmniPeace and buildOn to build a new school in Mali. She paid for the entire project, which cost about $32,000.

She contributed additional efforts to charity but changed her focus early in 2013 when her aunt, Maureen "Hopey" Vaz passed away due to multiple organ failure. The Leonard tragedy, coupled with her aunt's death, motivated Charles to set up a foundation in her aunt's memory.

In 2014 and 2015 Charles donated half her WNBA salary to Hopey's Heart Foundation, which provides AEDs to schools and organizations across the U.S. Her hope is that it will extend to all gymnasiums in which EuroLeague and EuroCup teams practice and play.

NEXT UP

After wrapping up its winter domestic tour against Louisville, the USA team will travel to Serbia to compete in the FIBA Olympic Qualifying Tournament Feb. 6-9 in Belgrade.

The USA opens against host Serbia on Feb 6, takes on Mozambique Jan. 8 and closes against Nigeria on Jan. 9.

Competing in Serbia will be: Ariel Atkins, Sue Bird, Skylar Diggins-Smith, Sylvia Fowles, Chelsea Gray, Brittney Griner, Jewell Loyd, Tiffany Mitchell, Nneka Ogwumike, Katie Lou Samuelson, Breanna Stewart and A'ja Wilson.

2020 OLYMPIC GAMES WOMEN'S BASKETBALL COMPETITION

Winners of the past six Olympic gold medals, the USA owns a record eight gold medals, one silver medal and one bronze medal, while compiling an all-time 66-3 record in Olympic play since women's basketball was first introduced to the Olympic program in 1976.

In 2016, the U.S. took the gold medal, while Spain captured silver and Serbia won bronze.

The 2020 Olympic competition will see a different tournament format launched in 2020. The 12 teams will be split into three groups of four teams apiece for preliminary play, held July 27-Aug. 3.

Following the preliminary round, teams will be seeded, and the top two teams from each group and the two best third place teams, according to FIBA's placement rules, will qualify for the medal round. In the medal round, teams will compete in a knockout bracket, with winners advancing from the Aug. 5 quarterfinals to the Aug. 7 semifinals. The gold-medal game will be played on Aug. 9, ahead of the 2020 closing ceremony.

2020 OLYMPIC QUALIFYING PROCESS

The USA, by virtue of winning the gold medal at the 2018 FIBA World Cup, along with host Japan, already have secured berths into the 2020 tournament. However, both nations are taking part in the 2020 Olympic qualifying process.

In addition to the U.S. and Japan, the top six finishing teams from the 2019 European Championship, along with the eight other nations that advanced out of their respective FIBA Pre-Olympic Qualifying Tournaments in November, will vie for the final 10 Olympic slots earned out of the four FIBA Olympic Qualifying Tournaments Feb. 6-9.

The USA is competing in the Belgrade, Serbia, group against Mozambique, Nigeria and Serbia. Drawn to play in Bourges, France, are Australia, Brazil, France and Puerto Rico; the competition in Foshan, China, will include China, Great Britain, South Korea and Spain; while Belgium, Canada, Japan and Sweden will play in Ostend, Belgium.

Each team will play one game against the other three teams in its pool and the top three finishing teams from each group will advance to play in Tokyo, with the exception of OQT groups that include the USA or Japan. In those groups, only the top two finishing teams that are not the U.S. or Japan, will advance to play in Tokyo. (See the final page of notes for a more detailed and visual explanation)

WINNING STREAK

The USA National Team has not lost a game at a FIBA competition since 2006, tallying 60-straight victories since the 2006 World Cup bronze medal win. The streak includes the 2019 FIBA Americas Pre-Olympic Qualifying Tournament; 2007 and 2019 FIBA AmeriCups; 2006 World Cup bronze medal game; 2010, 2014 and 2018 World Cups; and 2008, 2012 and 2016 Olympic Games.

USA BASKETBALL HONORS

USA Basketball Female Athlete of the Year honors have been earned by three members of the USA NCAA Tour squad. Diana Taurasi (2006, 2010, 2012, 2016) is tied with five-time Olympian Teresa Edwards for the most, earning the honor four times in her illustrious career. Breanna Stewart (2011, 2013, 2018) has earned the honor three times and Tina Charles (2009) and A'ja Wilson (2015) round out the list.

AGE: 'TIS BUT A NUMBER

When Carol Menken spoke to the U.S. squad ahead of the Oregon State game, she asked for a show of hands — she wanted to know who was over the age of 26. Eight of the 11 USA athletes in the circle that morning raised their hands. Why did Menken ask about that specific age? It's because in 1984, when she won gold at the Olympics, Menken was the oldest member of the U.S. Olympic Women's Basketball Team. #longevity

BABY ON BOARD

The USA National Team has two moms on the roster this year as both Skylar Diggins-Smith and Diana Taurasi have a son who is under 2. Taurasi's son Leo was born in spring 2018 and Diggins-Smith gave birth in 2019. It's not the first time a child has been around the team - Kara Braxton, Lisa Leslie, Candace Parker, Sheryl Swoopes and Tina Thompson had their children with them during USA National Team training camps.

Further, Yolanda Griffith and Taj McWilliams-Franklin also were moms while playing with the red, white and blue, but their children were already grown while they were playing.

CRANK IT UP TO 11

There are only 11 players in USA history who have won the four major championships in U.S. women's basketball: an Olympic gold medal, FIBA World Cup gold medal, WNBA title and NCAA title. Those 10 included: Sue Bird, Swin Cash, Tamika Catchings, Cynthia Cooper, Asjha Jones, Brittney Griner, Maya Moore, Breanna Stewart, Sheryl Swoopes, Diana Taurasi and Kara Wolters.

Taking into account Anne Donovan's college titles at Old Dominion, Olympic and World Cup golds as a player, and her WNBA title as a coach, she also deserves mention here.

RECORD SETTER

Sue Bird has the USA record for most World Cup teams, and has won four gold (2002, 2010, 2014, 2018) and one bronze (2006) medal in her five World Cup appearances. She is the only person in history of the game, men or women, regardless of country, with five FIBA World Cup medals. Further, she sits atop the medal board among all World Cup participants in history. Bird is the lone female among five-time medalists, and the three men who have earned four World Cup medals earned only two golds apiece.

ALL IN THE FAMILY

The Samuelson family will likely be keeping odd hours during the 2020 FIBA Olympic Qualifying Tournament, with two sisters slated to compete in Serbia and China Feb. 6-9.

Katie Lou will compete for the USA in Serbia and Karlie, who last summer helped Great Britain advance to the OQT, is on GB's preliminary roster for the games. The USA plays each game at 2 p.m. EST, while Karlie's GB squad tips at 6:35 a.m. EST on Feb. 6 and 2 a.m. EST on Feb. 8-9.

USA NATIONAL TEAM TIMELINE

1953 World Championship: Gold.

1957 World Championship: Gold.

1975 World Championship: Eighth place.

1976 Olympics: The USA returns from the first Olympic women's basketball tournament with the silver medal.

1984 Olympics: The U.S. won its first Olympic gold medal in Los Angeles. The Soviet-bloc countries boycotted the Games, however, so there was no long-awaited USA-USSR showdown. Pat Summitt becomes the first American woman to be a player (1976), assistant coach (1980) and head coach (1984) on three Olympic teams.

1986 World Championship: Held in Moscow, the United States soundly thrashed host USSR 108-88 in the gold medal game, dethroning the defending champs. The 1953 USA World Cup Team returned home with the gold medal from the inaugural FIBA World Cup.

PROFESSIONAL HIGHLIGHTS

- USA Basketball Gold medals: 2014 & 2018 FIBA World Cups, 2016 Olympic Games & 2019 FIBA AmeriCup.
- Six WNBA championships (four as a head coach and two as an assistant coach)
- 2011 and 2016 WNBA Coach of the Year
- 2019 WNBA Executive of the Year

WNBA Minnesota Lynx general manager and head coach Cheryl Reeve was named as an assistant to the 2019-20 USA Basketball Women's National Team through the 2020 Olympic Games on June 20, 2019.

She is teaming up with USA National Team assistant coach Dan Hughes as a co-coach during the 2019-20 USA's training and competition segments that take place during the collegiate season.

This past fall, Reeve was an assistant for the 2019 USA AmeriCup Team that earned the gold medal with a 6-0 mark in San Juan, Puerto Rico. She then served as lead coach as the USA National Team posted a 6-1 record in November.

Reeve previously served as an assistant coach for the 2014-16 USA National Team that claimed gold medals at the 2014 FIBA World Cup and 2016 Olympic Games, and returned as an assistant coach for the 2018 USA World Cup Team that claimed gold and qualified the USA for the 2020 Olympics.

Having completed in 2019 her 10th season at the helm of the Lynx (2010 to present), Reeve, who in 2017 took on the role of Lynx general manager, has compiled a 231-109 overall record, 40-17 playoff slate and captured WNBA championships in 2011, 2013, 2015 and 2017.

In 2019, after losing Rebekkah Brunson, Maya Moore and Lindsay Whalen, who were integral to Minnesota's WNBA title runs, Reeve selected eventual Rookie of the Year Napheesa Collier, made a couple instrumental trades and finished with an 18-16 slate and a playoff berth. She earned the 2019 WNBA Basketball Executive of the Year award for her efforts.

After a 13-21 finish in 2010, Reeve helped orchestrate the second-best turnaround in league history, capping the regular season with a 27-7 record and then winning the WNBA title. For her efforts, Reeve was named the 2011 WNBA Coach of the Year. She won the award again in 2016 after leading the Lynx to a league-best 28-6 record.

Prior to being named head coach of the Lynx, Reeve spent nine years as an assistant in the league at Charlotte (2001-02, 2004-05), Cleveland (2003) and Detroit (2006-09), where she aided the Shock to a pair of WNBA titles.

Reeve's coaching resume includes 27 years as both an assistant and a head coach at the collegiate and WNBA levels. In 2009, Reeve served as an assistant coach with the WNBA's

Detroit Shock, and was promoted to the team's general manager position just three games into the season.

Hired by three-time WNBA champion head coach Bill Laimbeer, Reeve joined the Shock coaching staff in 2006 and helped the franchise reach the WNBA Finals in each of her first three years, winning WNBA titles in 2006 and 2008. During her four years with Detroit, the team held an 87-49 win-loss record and won at least 18 games each season, including 24 in 2007. Reeve also served as the Shock's director of player personnel in 2008.

Reeve got her start in the WNBA with the Charlotte Sting in 2001 when she joined Anne Donovan's staff as an assistant coach. After posting an 8-24 record in 2000, Charlotte turned things around in Reeve's first year, going 18-14 en route to advancing to the WNBA Finals. Reeve spent the 2002 season in Charlotte before joining Dan Hughes' coaching staff in Cleveland for the 2003 season. Reeve returned to the Sting in 2004 and 2005 before joining Detroit in 2006. In Reeve's nine years as an assistant in the WNBA, she compiled a 54.3 winning percentage (163-137), including seven postseason appearances and advancing to the WNBA Finals four times.

Before joining the WNBA coaching ranks, Reeve spent 12 years coaching collegiately, including a five-year stint as head coach at Indiana State University (1995-96 through 1999-2000). Reeve guided the Sycamores to the program's first postseason berth in 20 years following the 1998-99 campaign.

Reeve also spent five years (1990-91 through 1994-95) as an assistant coach at George Washington University. During that time, the Colonials posted five 20-win seasons, captured three Atlantic 10 Conference Tournament titles and appeared in four NCAA Tournaments. Reeve got her start in coaching at her alma mater, La Salle University, as an assistant coach for two seasons (1988-89 through 1989-90).

As a player at La Salle, Reeve led the nationally-ranked Explorers to a 25-5 record in 1987-1988. She was named All-Metro Atlantic Conference and was an All-Big 5 selection as a senior. Reeve holds the school record for most games started (110) and ranks fourth on La Salle's career assist leader board (420).

Reeve graduated with a degree in computer science/management information systems. A Rhodes Scholar nominee, Reeve received both a MAAC Scholar-Athlete Post Graduate Award and a NCAA Post-Graduate Scholarship in 1988. She went on to earn her master's degree in business administration from her alma mater while also serving two years as an assistant coach for the Explorers.

In September, Hughes was an assistant for the 2019 USA AmeriCup Team that captured the gold medal with a 6-0 mark in San Juan, Puerto Rico. In November, Hughes was on the sideline as the USA posted a 6-1 record against domestic and international competition.

Hughes previously served on the USA Basketball Women's National Team Player Selection Committee from 2009-16, was a court coach during the USA National Team's February 2018 training camp in South Carolina, was on the sideline during the USA's 83-46 exhibition victory over China in Seattle in April 2018 and joined the USA World Cup Team in Tenerife, Spain, after guiding the Storm to the 2018 WNBA title.

Named on Oct. 4, 2017, as head coach for the Seattle Storm, Hughes made a dramatic first impression in his inaugural season in leading the Storm to a league-best 26-8 record and the 2018 WNBA crown.

Hughes underwent surgery to remove a carcinoid tumor in his digestive tract on May 14, 2019, and returned to the Storm sideline June 21. Despite losing four-time Olympic gold medalist Sue Bird and 2018 WNBA MVP Breanna Stewart to injury in 2019, the Storm finished with an 18-16 record and advanced to the second round of the WNBA playoffs.

Prior to arriving in Seattle, Hughes spent 16 years as a WNBA head coach. He began his career in the league as the Charlotte Sting head coach in 1999, served as the Cleveland Rockers head coach from 2000-03 and was at the helm of the San Antonio Stars from 2005-09 and 2011-16.

In all, Hughes owns a 237-287 overall record, has directed teams to the playoffs 12 times and advanced to the 2008 WNBA Finals after guiding San Antonio to a first-place finish in the Western Conference with a 24-10 record.

- 2006, 2007, 2010 America East Coach of the Year.

A member of seven previous USA Basketball coaching staffs and the 2011 USA Basketball National Coach of the Year, George Washington University head coach Jennifer Rizzotti was named on June 20, 2019, as an assistant coach for the 2019-20 USA Basketball Women's National Team through the 2020 Olympic Games.

Rizzotti served as an assistant coach to the 2018 USA World Cup Team that captured gold in Tenerife, Spain, and qualified the USA for the 2020 Olympics. She most recently was on the sideline as an assistant for the 2019 USA AmeriCup Team that captured the gold medal with a 6-0 mark in San Juan, Puerto Rico.

Rizzotti served as an advance scout/court coach for the gold-medal winning 2016 U.S. Olympic and 2014 USA World Cup teams, and she also served as court coach during USA National Team training camps from 2014-17.

Rizzotti began coaching with USA Basketball as an assistant for the 2006 USA U18 National Team that claimed gold, and as a head coach led the 2010 USA U18 National Team and 2011 USA U19 World Cup Team to gold medals. As an athlete, Rizzotti was a member of the 1996 USA R. William Jones Cup that earned the gold medal with a 9-0 slate.

Rizzotti completed her first season at George Washington in 2016-17 with a 20-10 slate, including 13-3 in the Atlantic 10 Conference for a share of the A-10 regular season title, and earned a berth in the WNIT.

In her second year at GW, she piloted her squad to a 19-14 slate, the 2018 A-10 Tournament title and a trip to the NCAA Tournament.

In all, Rizzotti owns a 49-44 (.527 winning percentage) record through her first three years at George Washington.

Prior to arriving at GW, Rizzotti spent 17 seasons (1999-2000 through 2015-16) at the helm of the University of Hartford where she compiled a 316-216 record (.594 winning percentage), including 183-97 (.654) in America East Conference play, won five conference championships and four regular-season titles. She was named America East Coach of the Year three times (2006, 2007, 2010) and advanced her teams to six NCAA Tournaments and the 2007 WNIT.

Rizzotti developed three dozen all-conference players, including a pair of America East Players of the Year, an America East Defensive Player of the Year and an America East Rookie of the Year, as well as Hartford's first-ever WNBA draftee.

As a student-athlete at the University of Connecticut, Rizzotti first vaulted into the national spotlight as the starting point guard for the Huskies' first national championship team in 1995 with an undefeated 35-0 record. During the run to the national title, Rizzotti was featured on the cover of Sports Illustrated.

A former All-American and the NCAA Regional Most Outstanding Player after her junior and senior seasons, Rizzotti virtually swept the postseason awards as Big East Player of the Year, Big East Scholar-Athlete of the Year, the Associated Press Player of the Year, the Collegiate Woman Athlete of the Year and the Wade Trophy winner in 1996.

Rizzotti graduated as UConn's career leader in assists (637) and steals (349) and still ranks second all-time in those categories.

As a coach and formerly as a student-athlete, Rizzotti's focus on academics has always been exemplary. Under her guidance, Hartford was ranked among the Women's Basketball Coaches Association's Academic Top 25 teams on three occasions. Another accolade from her playing days was awarded in June 2016 when the two-time Academic All-American and 1996 Academic All-American of the Year was officially inducted into the College Sports Information Directors of America (CoSIDA) Academic All-America Hall of Fame.

Rizzotti played eight seasons of professional basketball following her graduation from UConn in 1996. In addition to five seasons in the WNBA - two with the Houston Comets and three with the Cleveland Rockers - she competed for three seasons with the New England Blizzard in the American Basketball League. In the ABL she was a two-time All-Star.

Rizzotti and her husband, Bill Sullivan, have two sons, Holden and Conor.
